BUILDING BLOCKS VANCOUVER Program

OVER 30 YEARS OF EMPOWERING IMMIGRANTS AND REFUGEES TO HELP BUILD A BETTER COMMUNITY

WHAT IS BUILDING BLOCKS?

MOSAIC's Building Blocks Vancouver is an early intervention home-based parenting support program for vulnerable first-time parents that promotes healthy childhood development and enhances family functioning.

Our aim is to meet families' needs by providing the best possible service on an ongoing basis – until they are thriving or their first-born child reaches the age of five.

Building Blocks' family support home visitors are experienced and fluent in:

Cantonese	Korean
English	Spanish
Hindi	Punjabi
Tagalog	Vietnamese
Mandarin	Urdu

OUR EXPERIENCED AND FRIENDLY
FAMILY SUPPORT
HOME VISITORS
HELP YOU ALONG THE WAY!

BEFORE SUBMITTING REFERRALS, PLEASE CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING:

Is this a first-time parent?

Is the baby under six months?

Does the family live in Vancouver?

Does the family consent to the referral?

Would the family benefit from a family support home visitor?

MOSAIC IS PROUD TO PROVIDE THE BUILDING BLOCKS PROGRAM

*"You are kind,
flexible, accepting,
understanding,
knowledgeable and
warm-hearted ...
I strongly hope this Building Blocks program will be continued for many years"*
—Building Blocks graduated family

REFERRALS

If the family or individual fits the criteria, contact MOSAIC's Building Blocks Vancouver program.

Please note that a referral does not mean a family home support visitor will be automatically assigned. We will assist the family in finding other supports/referrals if it is not suitable for the program.

Referral forms can be found online at:

www.mosaicbc.com/family-programs/parents/building-blocks-vancouver*

Or contact us by:

Telephone:
604-254-9626

or

Fax:
